

General Risk Disclosure

1. General Risk Warning

Trading in the foreign exchange (forex), contracts for difference (CFDs), and other financial instruments carries a high level of risk and may not be suitable for all investors. Before deciding to trade, you should carefully consider your investment objectives, level of experience, and risk tolerance.

2. No Guarantee of Profit

There is no guarantee of profit from trading. Past performance is not indicative of future results. All trading strategies carry risk, and individuals must use their judgment to manage risks appropriately.

3. Leverage Risk

Trading with leverage can amplify both gains and losses. While leverage allows you to control large positions with a small initial investment, it can also result in significant losses, even exceeding your initial deposit.

4. Market Volatility

Financial markets are highly volatile and can change rapidly in response to economic events, market sentiment, or political developments. These fluctuations can result in sudden losses.

5. No Financial Advice

Primewave Fx does not offer investment advice, financial recommendations, or portfolio management services. Any content provided on our platforms is for educational and informational purposes only.

6. Technology and Internet Risks

There are inherent risks in using online trading platforms, including system failures, internet disconnection, software glitches, and cyber threats. Users should ensure they have secure and reliable internet access and updated systems.

7. Responsibility

You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for any and all trading decisions and the outcomes resulting from those decisions. Primewave Fx is not liable for any losses or damages incurred.

8. Regulatory Disclaimer

Ensure you are aware of and comply with any local laws or regulations in your jurisdiction before engaging in trading activities.

9. Changes to This Risk Disclosure

We reserve the right to update or modify this Risk Disclosure at any time. Please review this document periodically to stay informed about potential risks.
